2. How super works

About super

Superannuation is money you save through your working life for your retirement, and is partly compulsory. Understanding your super early will give you greater control and the confidence to make the best financial choices.

You're already saving for your retirement thanks to the compulsory Superannuation Guarantee (SG) your employer is required to contribute into your super account.

You can learn more about how super works at rest.com.au/understanding-super

Choosing your fund

Most people can choose which super fund they'd like their SG contributions paid into. Sometimes, your conditions of employment will decide which fund. If you don't have a choice, or you don't tell your employer, it will be paid into a MySuper product.

Making contributions

Super is a tax-effective way to save for your future thanks to tax concessions provided by the government. You can boost your super even further by:

- asking your employer to deduct extra money from your before-tax salary. This is called 'salary sacrifice' and may reduce the amount of tax you pay.
- putting money you have saved into your REST account. You may be eligible for a government co-contribution if you do this.

There are limits on how much you can accumulate in super and how much you can put in each year.

Go to rest.com.au/facts to learn more.

Consolidate your super

You might be able to help your retirement savings grow by transferring super you have in other funds into your REST account, and save on paying multiple fees. You can find your other super accounts and transfer them into REST at supermatch.rest.com.au

Before combining your super you should check how it might affect your insurance in your other funds and if they have any exit fees. If you have any questions we recommend you have a chat with a financial adviser.

Accessing your super

You can access your super when you reach certain conditions such as reaching your preservation age (60 if you were born after 1 July 1964) or you can't work due to permanent disablement.

You may be able to access your super early in very limited circumstances, where you meet the criteria for compassionate grounds or severe financial hardship.

While REST does not offer financial hardship payments, please contact us if you are in financial distress so we can talk to you about other options.

4. Risks of super

REST Super is designed to help you save for your retirement. Like all investments, there are investment risks. Super funds generally invest in a range of asset classes – for example, cash, bonds, property and shares – that have different levels of risk.

The likely investment return, and the risk of a negative return, is different for each investment option depending on the underlying mix of assets in that option.

Assets with the highest potential return over the longer term (such as shares), may also carry the highest level of short-term risk. REST offers a number of different investment options with different levels of risk.

When considering your investment in super, it is important to understand that:

- the value of investment options can go up and down
- future returns may differ from past returns
- returns are not guaranteed, will vary, and you may lose some of your money
- superannuation, social security and tax laws may change in the future
- the amount of your future superannuation savings (including contributions and returns) may not be enough to adequately provide for your retirement.

The appropriate level of risk for you will vary depending on a range of factors including your age, investment time frame, where your other assets are invested and how comfortable you are with the possibility of a negative return in some years.

Other significant investment risks include:

- market risk – investment returns may be affected by economic conditions, government regulations, market sentiment, international events and other factors
- company specific risk – an investment in a specific company may be affected by changes to the company such as loss of a major customer, changes in management and other internal and external factors
- currency risk – investments in international assets may be negatively affected by currency fluctuations
- interest rate risk – changes in interest rates in Australia and overseas can have a direct or indirect impact upon the value and return of all types of assets
- liquidity risk – from time to time some investments may not be easily converted to cash due to abnormal or difficult market conditions.

You should read the important information about the risks of super before making a decision. Go to the 'Investment Guide' available at rest.com.au/pds. The material relating to the risks of super may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.

5. How we invest your money

REST offers 13 investment options to suit our members' different needs and financial objectives.

Each option has a different level of risk and potential return. For example, the Core Strategy is designed for members looking for a balance between risk and return, with a wide asset allocation range.

You must consider the likely investment return, risk and your investment timeframe when choosing which option to invest in.

You can choose one or a combination of different options to create your portfolio.

The Core Strategy is the default investment option. So if you don't make an investment choice, you will be invested in the Core Strategy and you will be a MySuper member.

You will also be a MySuper member if you choose to invest your full account balance in the Core Strategy. If you don't invest your full account balance in the Core Strategy, you will be a choice member.

You can switch investment options online in MemberAccess, or by completing an 'Application to make an investment choice' form and returning it to REST.

REST's investments are managed by investment managers appointed by us. We recognise that sustainability factors (which include but are not limited to environmental, social and governance factors) and risks may have a material influence on the investment returns over the long term.

As a result, we adopt strategies and appoint investment managers that are considered to be consistent with delivering the Fund's stated investment objectives, as a long-term investor on behalf of its members.

You should read the important information about how we invest your money before making a decision. Go to the 'Investment Guide' available at rest.com.au/pds. The material relating to how we invest your money may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.

The Core Strategy investment option is designed for members looking for a balance between risk and return, with a wide asset allocation range.

The Core Strategy has an exposure to the Australian shares asset class which may include companies listed in Australia but are based overseas. In addition, up to 10% of this asset class may be invested in stocks listed on the New Zealand Stock Exchange.

¹ This is what we use to determine asset allocation. It is also used to measure if the investment objective is met. It is not a guaranteed rate of return. REST does not use the Return Target (shown in the Product Dashboard) to set the investment return objective.

² The asset allocation will vary year to year within the ranges shown in brackets. This also means the allocation to defensive assets and growth assets will vary from time to time. We reserve the right to vary the asset allocations, including the benchmarks and ranges, of all or any of the investment options, introduce new options or close existing options without prior notice (where permitted by law).

6. Fees and costs

Consumer Advisory Warning

Did you know?

Small differences in both investment performance and fees and costs can have a substantial impact on your long-term returns. For example, total annual fees and costs of 2% of your account balance rather than 1% could reduce your final return by up to 20% over a 30 year period (for example, reduce it from $100,000 to $80,000).

You should consider whether features such as superior investment performance or the provision of better member services justify higher fees and costs.

You or your employer, as applicable, may be able to negotiate to pay lower administration fees where applicable. Ask the fund or your financial adviser.

To find out more

If you would like to find out more, or see the impact of the fees based on your own circumstances, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) website (moneysmart.gov.au) has a superannuation fee calculator to help you check out different fee options.

The calculator on the ASIC website at moneysmart.gov.au can be used to calculate the effect of fees and costs on your superannuation account balance.

As an industry fund, REST operates only to benefit members. This helps us keep our fees low, providing you with great value for money.

³ More information about risk band and level and Standard Risk Measure can be found in the 'Investment Guide' available at rest.com.au

⁴ Returns are quoted at 30 June each year after fees not directly charged to your account and taxes have been deducted. The returns stated are correct as at 30 June 2017.

Fees and costs

This section provides information about the main fees and costs for a REST Super member wholly invested in the Core Strategy which are deducted directly from your account or from investment returns. Financial advice fees

REST Advice is all about helping you make good decisions with your super and money, so we don't charge you any extra for simple super questions. If you need more complex advice from a REST Adviser, you'll be charged a fee which you may be able to pay for out of your super. We'll always talk to you about this fee first, and we'll set out the details and amount in a Statement of Advice we'll provide to you.

You should read the important information about fees and costs before making a decision. Go to 'Additional information on fees and costs' available at rest.com.au/pds The material relating to fees and costs may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.

7. How super is taxed

There are a number of ways that super is taxed. As the tax treatment of super is complex and may change from time to time, we recommend that you seek advice from a financial adviser, accountant or tax agent.

You should provide us with your Tax File Number (TFN), otherwise a higher tax rate will apply to your contributions and may have an impact when you access your benefit.

Without your TFN, we will also:

- be unable to accept any personal contributions to your account
- have more difficulty tracing different super amounts in your name via the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) search facility (this could assist in ensuring you receive all your super benefits when you retire).

The following tax rules apply except if you exceed the before or after-tax contribution caps. If you exceed the contribution caps for super you will pay extra tax.

- REST will pay the tax applying to your account directly to the ATO.
- Contributions into your super that are made from your before-tax salary are taxed at 15%.
- Contributions into your super made from your after-tax money are not taxed in the fund.
- Investment earnings are taxed at a maximum rate of 15%.
- Withdrawals from your account may be taxed if you are aged less than 60. Once you turn 60, you can withdraw your super tax free.

For information about how tax applies to super contributions, investment earnings and withdrawals go to rest.com.au/facts

8. Insurance in your super

If you join REST Super and are receiving mandatory employer contributions from a REST employer (such as Superannuation Guarantee contributions), you will receive our Automatic Basic Cover package.

If you are not receiving mandatory employer contributions from a REST employer, you can still apply for Basic Cover by providing health and other underwriting information. The easiest way you can apply for Basic Cover is online in MemberAccess.

Your insurance cover is subject to eligibility criteria and any applicable conditions and exclusions outlined in the REST Super Insurance Guide available at rest.com.au/pds. You should read the information in that document before deciding whether the insurance is appropriate.

What is Basic Cover?

Basic Cover is a flexible package designed to protect you from your first job right through to retirement, without your active involvement. Your insurance costs are deducted from your REST Super account.

REST offers you two types of cover:

- a lump sum for your beneficiaries if you pass away (Death cover)
- financial protection that replaces some of your income if you're unable to work due to illness or injury (Income Protection cover) and/or provides a lump sum benefit (Total and Permanent Disablement cover).

Basic Cover includes five units each of Death, TPD and IP cover. Our Death cover is life stage based. This means cover is lowest when you are young and your needs and salary are generally lower. It automatically increases as you get older and your needs increase, and again reduces as you approach retirement.

Death cover also includes an advanced part payment of your death benefit in the unfortunate event you become terminally ill. Our TPD cover provides a lump sum benefit of $71,500 for most age groups to help meet up-front expenses in the event of permanent disability.

Our IP cover is designed to help meet living expenses if you can't work due to injury or sickness for more than 60 days. The maximum IP benefit payable will be 77% of your Pre-Disability Income plus 12% of this amount as a super component paid into your REST Super account. These may be limited by your amount insured and the maximum cover limit.

To keep up with the cost of living, the level of Death, TPD and IP Basic Cover that applies at each age will be indexed by 5% on 1 January each year. As a result of the increase in cover, insurance costs will also increase.

Changing your cover

You can increase, reduce or cancel each component of your insurance.

If Basic Cover is not enough for your needs, you may also apply for voluntary cover for any amount of Death, $5 million of TPD ($1 million if you are aged 65 or over) and $30,000 per month IP cover (subject to your income).

If Basic Cover is more than you need, you can reduce each component to a level that suits your needs.

If you don't want any insurance cover in REST, you can cancel it.

To change or cancel your insurance cover, please consider your needs carefully and either login to MemberAccess at rest.com.au or contact REST Customer Service on 1300 300 778.

Unless you cancel your insurance cover, the cost of the cover will be deducted from your REST Super account.

If your account balance is insufficient to cover your insurance costs, your cover will end without notice.

Information about the level, type and actual cost of optional insurance cover is contained in the REST Super Insurance Guide available at rest.com.au/pds

You should read the information in that document before deciding whether the insurance is appropriate.

Special offer for new members

If you're a new member (within your first 120 days of joining REST Super) and you are receiving mandatory employer contributions from a REST employer, you can take advantage of a special limited offer to increase your level of Basic Cover by one or two units – without needing to provide any health evidence (limits and conditions apply).

Simply visit rest.com.au/calculators to explore your different cost and cover options.

What if I have both Death and TPD insurance cover?

It is important to note that your TPD and Death Cover are linked, so any TPD payments will reduce your Death benefit by the amount paid.

For example, if your Death and TPD cover are for equal amounts, and you are paid a TPD benefit, your Death cover will cease.

However, if your Death cover is higher than your TPD cover, and you are paid a TPD benefit, you will continue to be insured for the balance of your Death cover.

You should read the important information about insurance before making a decision. Go to the 'REST Super Insurance Guide' available at rest.com.au/pds The material relating to insurance may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.
